✓ THE NAMES OF COMPANIES OPERATING PIPELINES IN YOUR COMMUNITY ALONG WITH THEIR EMERGENCY AND NON-EMERGENCY CONTACT INFORMATION

This information can be obtained through the member directory on our website and through the National Pipeline Mapping System.

✓ THE APPROXIMATE LOCATION OF THE PIPELINES AND THE PRODUCTS THEY CARRY

This information can be obtained through our PipeVision application, the National Pipeline Mapping System, by visually looking for pipeline markers and by contacting the pipeline operators in your area.

✓ THE PHYSICAL INDICATIONS OF A LEAK AND THE POSSIBLE HAZARDS ASSOCIATED WITH A RELEASE

This information can be obtained on pages 8-17 of our Pipeline Emergency Response Guidebook and on page 2 of our Incident Response Checklist.

✓ THE POTENTIAL IMPACT ON THE COMMUNITY AND WHAT STEPS SHOULD BE TAKEN TO PROTECT THE PUBLIC

This information can be obtained on pages 19-29 of our Pipeline Emergency Response Guidebook and on our Incident Response Checklist.

✓ THE RESPONSE CAPABILITIES OF THE PIPELINE COMPANIES AND HOW TO ENGAGE IN MUTUAL ASSISTANCE WITH OPERATORS

This information can be obtained in our emergency response capabilities application, on page 29 of our Pipeline Emergency Response Guidebook, and by contacting the pipeline operators in your area.

The Pipeline Association for Public Awareness has a variety of FREE training materials available for emergency responders on the resources section of our website including emergency response scenarios, videos, training presentations, our Responding to Utility Emergencies course and more!

PIPELINEAWARENESS.ORG/TRAINING